

'The Rockdale' 9 Michelin *

CHEF
Leonardo I.

The best restaurant in the history of Rockdale (including when the Target still existed)

Valentine's Day 'Essential Romance' Menu

AKA...The pregnancy offering ensuring limited options

Entree

Raspberry cold soup with Lobster pouch (who even knew lobsters had pouches)

Main

Traditionally comes after the entrée and tonight's no exception
Beef fillet topped brioche and almonds crust served with accompanied pumpkin and asparagus risotto

Dessert

Will definitely be better than last years dessert, likely due to the magnificent location of the restaurant (Rockdale)
Chocolate and strawberry terrine, risen up mirror of passion fruit and mango sorbet

(Pending actual review by qualified individuals with actual affiliations to the Michelin company)
